What is..

Save the Date - is a pre-invitation sent out to guests to let them know about your upcoming wedding and to reserve the date on their calendar.

Purpose - It gives guests early notice so they can plan ahead, especially helpful for:

- Out-of-town or international guests
- Weddings during holidays or peak seasons
- Destination weddings

Wedding Invitation Cards - is the formal announcement of a couple's upcoming wedding, inviting guests to attend the celebration. It's one of the most important pieces of wedding stationery and sets the tone and style of the event.

What it usually includes:

1. Names of the couple (sometimes with parents' names if traditional)
2. Date and time of the ceremony
3. Reception details (if separate from the ceremony)
4. Dress code
5. RSVP instructions (can be separate or included)
6. Optional: wedding website link or QR code or location GPS

What is..

Parents Wedding Invitation - Is the formal invitation card, that the parents will use to invite their guests to the wedding. It can be in their native language e.g Oshiwambo, Afrikaans etc,

Groomsman & Bridesmaids Proposals - is a cards that the groom or bride use to ask friends or loved ones to be part of their bridal party

TIGHT-EZ, YOU KNEW THIS WAS COMING!
(MAGGY SAID I SHOULD DO IT ANYWAY)

Monogram - is a design made by combining two or more letters, usually the initials of a person or couple, into a single, stylish symbol. It typically features the initials of the bride and groom and is used as a personalized logo for the event.

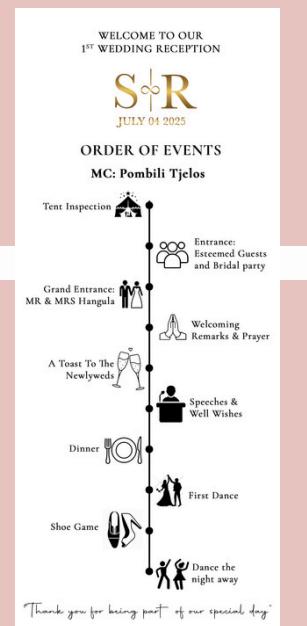

What is..

Wedding Website - is a personal online hub created by the couple to share all the important details about their wedding with guests. It's a modern and convenient way to communicate, organize, and connect before the big day.

What it includes: Couple's Love Story, Wedding Date, Time & Location, Ceremony & Reception Details, RSVP Form (with meal choices if needed), Travel & Accommodation Info, Dress Code, Gift Registry or Bank Details, Photo Gallery, Countdown to the Wedding, Contact Info or WhatsApp Link

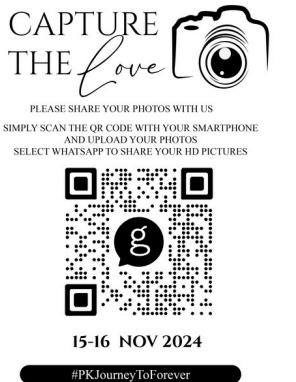

Welcome Signage - is a decorative sign placed at the entrance of the wedding ceremony or reception to warmly greet guests and set the tone for the celebration. It often reflects the wedding theme, colors, and style, making it both functional and aesthetic.

Ceremony Programs - (also called an order of service) is a printed or digital card, or sheet that guides guests through the flow of the wedding ceremony. It helps them understand what's happening, who's involved, and can also include personal touches.

What is..

QR Codes - is a modern, convenient way to let guests access information or interact with your event using their smartphones. When guests scan the code with their camera, it takes them directly to a link, saving paper and simplifying communication.

Wedding Countdown - is a way for couples to track the number of days left until their big day! It adds excitement and builds anticipation as the wedding date approaches.

Thank You Cards - is a heartfelt note sent by the couple after the wedding to express gratitude to their guests for attending, gifting, or supporting their special day. It's a thoughtful and meaningful final touch that leaves a lasting impression.
